Is Life
Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for dyspepsia, biliousness and the world-wide ailment, have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.

A Manageable Parachute.

Lieutenant Mansfield, of the Royal Naval reserve, made his ascent from the Victoria gardens recently, sitting upon a trapeze immediately beneath the balloon, to which was also attached a parachute of a new fashion. The whole rose to a height which rendered even the big balloon itself scarcely visible in the cloudless sky. It was now, as appears from this brave seaman's narrative, at an altitude of 11,400 feet, or more than two miles, commanding a vast horizon; but the voyager's hands were so numbed that he was becoming unable to feel the cords.

Then, says Lieutenant Mansfield, "finding my apparatus all clear, I took the balloon ring in my right hand, drew myself clear of the trapeze and dropped down into space." After descending with terrible velocity for some distance the parachute began to open. At 10,200 feet he was falling at a great speed, but was fully able to control the apparatus. At 10,000 feet he was sailing down calmly into space. Then he drifted to and fro in various counter currents, and at 1,000 feet exactly felt the heat from a long, red, iron chimney.

Now comes the more remarkable part of the narrative: "Steering my parachute," he continues, "to the eastward, I dropped her rapidly to clear the buildings ahead, and seeing nothing but houses to descend on, I selected the flattest I could find and dropped gently down on it." A spectator who watched the voyage from the gardens gives a vivid account of straining the eyes till he was just able to discern a tiny white speck on the blue sky. After what seemed a terrible length of time Lieutenant Mansfield became visible swinging under the parachute and working the valve lines so as to insure a safe landing when he chose to make it.

A Mysterious Blow.

An army officer is reported to have invented a wonderful electrical system of auxiliary harbor defenses. It is claimed that the device is so constructed that if a single ship or fleet of any number of vessels attempts to enter a harbor where the system has been introduced each ship could be struck a blow (with what or in what way it is not stated) equal to 50,000 tons, and the blow would come from overhead, out of the air, as the ship crossed a certain line. The mysterious blow, it is stated, is to come vertically, and is to strike upon the part of the ship where it will do the most permanent harm. Twenty of these Thorhammer blows can be struck in ten seconds of time. Several army officers and naval experts are said to have investigated the method, and are reported to have agreed that the blow could certainly be struck within a foot or two of the point indicated.

It is further said that the blow cannot be warder or conducted off, as a stroke of lightning might be, but would shatter the object struck into fragments.—Boston Herald.

A Precocious Criminal.

An instance of precocious wickedness worth recording is reported from Amiens. Alphonse Patte, a boy of 14½ years, was dismissed some time ago from the office of a local merchant for misconduct. He at once went to the bank in which his former master keeps his account and obtained a checkbook. With the aid of this valuable article the youth received over £2,000, which he squandered in Brussels, where he gave himself out as a French viscount. Strange enough, the lad had before crossing the frontier been seen frequently in Amiens spending money freely, yet no policeman molested him. He has now been brought back in custody to his native town, where his doings will meet with the punishment they deserve.—Paris Cor. London Telegraph.

A Singular Case.

According to a dispatch, psychologists are very much excited over the case of a young girl who lives at Hiawatha, Kan. The girl has always been considered exceptionally bright, but about two years ago she began periodically to act and talk entirely different from her usual manner. At these times her pronunciation of English became that of a former century and her deportment conformed to that time. She says she does not know who she is when she is laboring under the delusion, but thinks she will be able soon to tell who the spirit is that is taking possession of her body without permission.

Hale and Hearty at 112.

Probably the oldest inhabitant of southern Indiana is Alexander Hockaday, of Blue River township. He was born in what is now the state of Kentucky in 1780, and consequently is in his 112th year. He is the father of twelve children, and his wife, who is thirty years his junior, is still living. Mr. Hockaday never took but one dose of medicine in his life and did not take that until he was more than 100 years old. He is hale and hearty and bids fair to live several years yet.—Cor. Indianapolis Journal.

No one doubts that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy really cures catarrh, whether the disease be recent or of long standing, because the makers of it clinch their faith in it with a $500 guarantee, which isn't a mere newspaper guarantee, but "on call" in a moment. That moment is when you prove that its makers can't cure you. The reason for their faith is this: Dr. Sage's remedy has proved itself the right cure for ninety-nine out of one hundred cases of catarrh in the head, and the World's Dispensary Medical Association can afford to take the risk of you being the one hundredth.

The only question is are you willing to take the risk? If so, the rest is easy. You pay your druggist 50 cents and the trial begins. If you're wanting the $500 you'll get something better—a cure.

A Young Maine Samson.

Lemont M. Leavitt was born in June, 1886, in the old town of Turner. About the first thing Lemont began to do after he opened his eyes and uttered his first cry was to grow. His strength increased daily, and when five years old his skill with the ax attracted much attention. He would chop more wood than half of the hired men could, and his services were much sought by young men in the neighborhood who were too lazy to do their own chores on the farm.

Last summer the youthful giant, tendered a genuine surprise to his parents and neighbors. A party of men were building a wire fence near by. A pole was run through the center of a very large coil of wire, and everything was in readiness to unwind it, when it was found that a man expected to assist could not get there. Master Leavitt happened along, and, taking in the situation, picked up one end of the pole on his shoulder and marched off, keeping step with the man who held the other end in his arms only by the greatest exertions, while the man behind hung on to the wire while it was being uncoiled. Thus for nearly half a mile did this six-year-old Samson bear the burden that would have made many a full developed man shrink.

Just think of it, not quite six years old, yet Master Leavitt tips the scales at 108½ pounds in a light suit. He is active, both physically and mentally.—Auburn (Me.) Gazette.

A Bold Attempt Frustrated.

Not very long ago Mrs. S. received what was apparently an authentic telegram from her husband, who had been looking at several country places along the sound with a view to purchase. The message ran as follows: "Meet me at Stamford to sign papers. Nelson from office will call for you at 13 and accompany you." Thinking the telegram a perfectly natural one under the circumstances, Mrs. S. donned cloak and hat and waited her husband's emissary, who shortly arrived in a cab. He was a stranger to her, but not being familiar with all the clerks in the office she suspected nothing, and was about to depart with him to the static when, by a strange coincidence, her husband, who never left the office till late in the afternoon, was seen walking up the street.

As he told his wife afterward, he had occasion to use some important paper that he had left in his safe at home. As Mrs. S. turned toward him, expressing her surprise at seeing him when she had supposed him to be in Stamford, the pretended clerk jumped into the cab, called out some directions to the driver and was driven rapidly away. Of course the message was bogus, but Mrs. S.'s fine solitaires, which she constantly wore, and her costly rings were not bogus, and her excitement and fright may be imagined when she found that her husband never wired her to meet him at Stamford at all.—New York Tribune.

For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother must be able to pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as children's troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Boschee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

FRIENDLY ADVICE.

The Silver State, published where the Democratic State Convention is to be held next week, has the following on the subject:

"If the Democratic State Convention to be held at Winnemucca on the 26th instant shall catch the inspiration of the times and adopt strong, ringing and earnest resolutions in favor of free coinage and denunciation of the silver assassins in and out of Congress, and shall instruct its delegates to the National Convention to vote as a unit against all gold bug propositions to daily with the silver question or to delay or straddle the free coinage issue, and to vote for no man for the nomination to the office of President unless he shall be unqualifiedly in favor of the free coinage of silver and shall stand upon a free coinage platform, it will have the respect and confidence, not only of the people of this State, but of the friends of silver throughout the country. Otherwise it will richly deserve and lavishly receive the scorn, contempt and anathemas of every self-respecting man and woman in Nevada; it will be a disgrace to an intelligent, long-suffering and virtuous people, and become a stench in the nostrils of all honest men. Any man in that convention who shall so prostitute himself as to attempt to give aid or assistance, encouragement or comfort to the gold bug oligarchy will deserve to be forsaken by kindred and companions—to have cold and thirst, hunger and want, prey upon his vitals while living, and have no kindly hand to smooth his dying pillow while dying, or friendly smile to light his miserable exit from this world into the seething, stygian waves of the plutonian realms. For such a wretch the Savior scarcely died.

"Let the convention and its delegates to Chicago have but one star by which to guide their political actions—the bright, silver star of promise—and they will receive the plaudits of the populace, and, like the late Republican Convention, will have maintained the honor and integrity of their party's State organization, and finished their labors with their party banners and streamers proudly floating in the breeze with every stripe bright and unscathed."

CENSORSHIP OF THE PRESS.

As stated in yesterday's JOURNAL, a call has been issued in Virginia City for a mass meeting to take action on the silver question. That call was signed by fifty or more prominent citizens of Storey county representing every shade of political opinion, yet all in favor of free coinage. The Territorial Enterprise, published in a city whose prosperity, whose very existence, in fact, depends upon silver mining, says not a word, utters not a syllable regarding the proposed meeting or the object for which it is called.

It is said by persons who doubtless know whereof they speak, that the Enterprise is the organ of D. O. Mills, who is many times a millionaire and a pronounced gold bug, though his millions were made on this coast. Mr. Mills is thoroughly imbued with London and Wall Street ideas and his organ echoes his sentiments and grinds out the tunes it is set to play.

But it shows the disposition of the gold men and the self-like condition to which those who turn the cranks of their organs are reduced, when the Enterprise, a daily paper, purporting to give the news, is not permitted to mention the fact in its columns, that the citizens of the city in which it is published, Democrats and Republicans, have issued a call for a meeting to place themselves in line with the people of other sections of the State. This censorship, considering the condition of the State, and the fact that only a few of the richest mines can be worked, except at a loss, at the present price of silver, is worse than that of European despots.

The Enterprise is said to be the mouth-piece of Francis G. Newlands as well as D. O. Mills. If such be the fact it would be interesting to know whether Mr. Newlands endorses its course on the silver question and thinks it better to divide into factions on a subject that concerns all, than to present an unbroken front to the enemies of our principal industry.

REPUTATES THE GOLD MEN.

Two years ago Sylvester Penney was elected Governor of Oregon for four years on a free coinage platform. This year the Oregon Democrats, doubtless influenced by Wall street, inserted some platitudes about "honest money" in their platform, but said never a word in favor of silver. Governor Penney noticed the omission, and said he would have to go to his ranch and chop wood, as his party knocked the platform on which he was elected from under him. He has been at his ranch and consulted other farmers about the political situation, and they reached the conclusion that for the interests of the State they should repudiate the Wall street people, whether they called themselves Republicans or Democrats. Governor Penney, speaking for himself and other farmers at a public meeting at Albany Tuesday night, repudiated the financial plank of the Democratic platform because it does not declare for free coinage, and appealed to the people to vote the People's National ticket, because it will have a free coinage candidate for President on a free coinage platform.

Governor Penney has the courage of his convictions. He will not be a party to the contract between the Democratic leaders and Wall street. He was elected on a free coinage platform; he believes in the remonetization of silver, and he advises the people to support the party which approves that policy.

Congressional Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Among the bills introduced and referred were the following: An Act authorizing the President to proclaim a general holiday commemorating the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America on October 12, 1892, and one by Hancock to encourage American ship building by extending to the steamship "China," which plies between San Francisco and China on the Pacific Mail line, but which flies the British flag, the same privileges as are extended to the "City of Paris" and the "City of New York."

Call offered a resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, requesting the President to open negotiations with the Government of Spain for the purpose of inducing that government to consent to the establishment on the island of Cuba a free and independent Republic. Such consent to be given on the payment by Cuba to Spain of such a sum of money as was equivalent both to the value of the public property belonging to Spain in the islands and the relinquishment of her sovereign rights. Also for the negotiation of a treaty to secure such material advantages as may be agreed upon.

The President's message on the subject of an international conference was taken up and Peffer addressed the Senate declaring his conviction that if the voters would combine the result would surely be successful.

The Naval Appropriation Bill was then taken up and read. When the amendment inserting the item of $50,000 for the expenses of a naval review in connection with the World's Columbian Exposition was reached, McPherson asked Hale (who is in charge of the bill) if $50,000 was sufficient for the purpose.

Hale replied that it was not, but all that should be expended for the present and that next winter more would be needed. The amendment was agreed to without further discussion. The bill went over until to-morrow and after an executive session the Senate adjourned.

A bill to exclude political influence from 61,000 fourth-class postoffices was agreed upon at a meeting of the House Committee on Civil Service Reform to-day. It provides for a division of the country into postal districts. Congressmen and other Federal officers are forbidden to make recommendations or to interfere in any way with the appointments under the bill and appointments or removals upon political grounds are prohibited.

Republicans Organize.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The Republican Congressional Campaign Committee was organized this evening by the election of Senator Anthony Higgins of Delaware as Chairman and Representative John A. Caldwell of Ohio as Vice Chairman, and the following to constitute with the above the Executive Committee: Senators Perkins of Kansas, Washburn of Minnesota, Representatives Townsend of Colorado, Hook of Tennessee, Herman of Oregon, Walker of Massachusetts and Chenham of North Carolina. Edward McPherson of Pennsylvania was elected Secretary.

Boodlers in the Law's Clutches.

CHICAGO, May 12.—The first of the trials growing out of the recent grand jury investigations was held to-day. Defendant M. B. Heroley, a member of the Board of Education, was charged with soliciting bribes. Sterling L. Bailey, Vice President of the Sneed, Keating Apparatus Co., was the only witness, his testimony being very weak. Judge Collins discharged the accused, saying he should never have been indicted. The indicted Aldermen will be tried later on.

The World's Fair Strikers.

CHICAGO, May 12.—Unless the demand of the iron workers is conceded to the Chicago Building Trades Council will be asked on Friday night to declare a general strike by all the workmen at the World's Fair grounds. Whether the council will accede to the request remains to be seen. The secretary of the painters' organization said to-day that the painters would willingly quit work to help the iron workers.

More International Tom Tom.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The acceptance by England of the invitation to take part in the International Monetary Conference will, it is believed, carry other nations with it, and assure the success of the movement. It is understood favorable responses are also received from Italy, Austria and Hungary.

Out of Sight.

VALLEJO, Cal., May 12.—The war ship Iroquois, hailed down her flag to-day and went out of commission, and will likely never be used again.

Fatal Mine Accident.

OROVILLE, Cal., May 12.—A mining disaster occurred at Oroville, twelve miles from this town, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Three men, named Jack Powers, Jr., J. O. Hall and T. P. Hall, were mining in an old tunnel when it caved and killed all three. The men had been quite successful lately and in one spot got $1,000. They began in this tunnel last Monday and believed they would do well. The Hall brothers came from Montana lately, while Powers was born in Cherokee. The latter was married but the other two were single. All three were young men.

Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The Senate confirmed the nomination of T. Jefferson Coolidge, the Massachusetts Minister to France.

A Big Discovery of Gold.

Herman Bernhardt, August Helmann and Herman Rene, all well known residents of this city, returned on Friday from a prospecting trip in the vicinity of Cottonwood Springs, about 125 miles due east from this place, bringing with them about $1,000 worth of gold, almost pure, that they had taken from decomposed quartz ledge that they had discovered twenty-two miles north of Cottonwood Springs. They state that the ledge is about four miles over the mountains and is rich in gold wherever it has been tapped. Immediately after the discovery two of the partners came to this city to procure supplies and tools to commence work, and they returned to the mines Tuesday. Several business men and about forty prospectors left also, all headed for the new El Dorado.

Since the discovery, which is the richest ever known in this section of the country, there have been several stories told, and nearly all old miners agree that the old Pegleg mine, which has been lost for years and which was reported as marvellously rich, has now been rediscovered. The quality of the gold agrees exactly with that brought in by Indians, who have been tracked and followed, but who would never reveal the place from which they got their gold, and they have always struck out in the direction of Cottonwood Springs. Several parties are outfitting here for the new mines.—San Bernardino Cor. San Francisco Chronicle.

A Sad Case.

There were several brothers. They are all dead but one. It is a curious fact that they all went insane at a certain age—all but the one now living. They were all well off in every respect, so there was nothing about the condition of either to undermine the reason. The living one knew the fatal curse which had followed the family, and looked forward to his fate with a coolness akin to desperation. A year ago, knowing that the time was near at hand when he would be of the same age as that at which the calamity had fallen, he sold his property, divided the money among his relatives, wound up his business, which was prosperous, settled with all those with whom he had had dealings, and retired to a quiet place near where he had always lived, and there he is now awaiting his turn to go crazy.

Only a few of his friends knew the reason for his action and they tried to dissuade him from the act. An eminent specialist on such cases made him a study and told him that he would not doubt escape the malady if he would continue in business, and thereby keep his mind engrossed. He shook his head, thanked his friends and the physician, and retired, saying as he did so, "I shall go mad." Realizing the year, the month and almost the day, and he is awaiting his turn to go mad. He is an intelligent and has always been an honest man. It is a sad case.—Interview in Chicago Tribune.

Lost Land.

A Bideford man is in a queerer predicament than the Portland old gentleman whose securities have disappeared, for he has lost a lot of land. He says he owns fifty acres in the suburbs of Bideford, which his grandmother left him, but he can't find it. The boundary lines haven't been run for generations. There is some dim record of the original grant at Alfred, but not clear enough to enable him to find out just what he owns. He has a surveyor at work trying to run the lines, but each time he has encroached on land to which others have clear titles.

Now the property is advertised for taxes and a possible solution has presented itself to the owner. He says that he is going to let the city sell the land for taxes, bid it in himself and let the city find it for him. The city, he argues, can't sell anything it can't deliver and can't deliver anything it can't find.—Bangor (Me.) Commercial.

A Singular Lock.

A singular discovery has just been made here. On a side door of a room in Dukey's house was a lock which had given considerable trouble by not working properly. On being taken off for repairs, and after being cleaned and scraped, the following inscription was discovered: "This lock was on the chamber door at St. Helena wherein he breathed his last, who made princes bow and kings tremble on their thrones.—Napoleon." The house is about sixty years old. Its antecedents will be inquired into.—Plymouth Cor. Boston Transcript.

Cattle Killed by Electricity.

The experiment of the killing of cattle by electricity will soon be tried at the Aberdeen abattoir, where the electric plant is now being installed. If the experiment proves that this manner of killing of cattle has no bad influence on the quality of the beef the application of electricity will hereafter be general.—New York Journal.

Mrs. Hotchkiss' Gift.

Mrs. Hotchkiss, widow of the inventor and manufacturer of the Hotchkiss gun, has given a tract of land, a building fund of $150,000, and an endowment of $500,000 for the purpose of building a preparatory school for Yale college.—New Haven Letter.

Numerous grandchildren of both the contracting parties attended the wedding of a groom of seventy-five and a bride of seventy-one at Crawfordsville, Ind., a few days ago.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and creates organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me no good at all. After taking I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

The Hoskins case is set for Saturday morning. General Irish is at Silver City surveying mining claims.

No family is safe without a bottle of Lightning Fluid. The V. & T. was well loaded with passengers last night.

A. M. Trolan of Churchill county, visited Reno yesterday.

Hon. W. H. A. Pike of Wadsworth arrived in Reno last night.

Mrs. Theodore Winters was a passenger for San Francisco last night.

Ladies that have used Winterilla cannot speak its praises high enough.

The Free Coinage Song by Scanlon aroused unbounded enthusiasm last evening.

C. Haskel, Superintendent of Winters' Ophir dairy, arrived from California yesterday.

A number of surveyors are soon to begin the work of surveying the High Line ditch.

The Y. W. C. T. U. will give Mrs. Pitt Stevens a reception at Armory Hall this evening.

The University boys are making extensive preparations for their third annual field day.

Hon. M. S. Bonfield of Winnemucca and Joseph Hill of Lovelocks arrived in Reno last night.

There will be an interesting discussion on the Silver question to-night at the Verdi Lyceum.

The Honey Lake Land boomers have issued a paper devoted to the interest of the new boom land.

There will be a unique entertainment in the gymnasium of the School for Girls Saturday evening next.

Among the arrivals on the V. & T. last evening were Miss Louise Becker and Miss Nellie Hymers.

Miss Emily Pitt Stevens has been invited to deliver an address to the University students this afternoon.

Hon. George Russell of Elko is a staunch silver man and in favor of a third party if necessary to secure free coinage.

J. R. Bradley and N. H. A. Mason have gone to New Mexico with a view of buying a lot of stock cattle to bring to Nevada.

Harry Gorham of Gold Hill came down on Wednesday evening's train to meet his family who arrived from the East yesterday.

The Enterprise says: It is rumored that the University cadets at Reno will take part in the parade in Virginia on Memorial Day.

The JOURNAL is requested to say that the public school children are invited to meet at the M. E. Church at 3 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon.

A number of the members of Carroll Johnson's "Gossoon" Company which arrived last night were present at the Minstrel performance.

The Bank of Nevada has fully decided to erect a commodious brick building in the near future. The exact location has not yet been decided on.

The Austin Advocate says two feet of snow fell at Grantsville, Nye county, last week, and three feet fell on the summit between Midas and Reese river.

Peares of Tennessee, one of Bland's able lieutenants in the Silver fight has all but secured the required 107 signatures requisite to call the question up.

Senator M. D. Foley returned from San Francisco yesterday morning. Mr. Foley, who is a delegate to the Minneapolis Convention, will soon start for the East.

N. J. Foxwell of Verdi visited Reno yesterday. He says everybody up his way is for silver, though J. P. Foulks assumes the guise of a gold bug at the Lyceum to-night.

The streets of Virginia City are lined with idle men. Unless something is accomplished for free silver the once famous Comstock will be deserted in a few years.

Senator W. M. Stewart is said to be the hardest worker, Hancock the handsomest man, Daniels the most eloquent, and Stanford the richest man in the United States Senate.

The meeting for the organization of the Wadsworth branch of the Washoe County Silver League has been postponed from this evening until next Friday evening, May 20th.

The Truckee Republican reports on good authority that the railroad company will have a new time card issued next month, at which time the standard rules will be introduced.

Dr. Geo. W. Williams, formerly of London, will be a guest at the Clarendon Hotel to-morrow and Sunday. The doctor visits Reno personally and as his reputation as a specialist precedes him, his stay in our city will be one of work rather than of pleasure.

The case of Robert Sage, charged with violating the Twelve O'clock Closing law, in which the jury disagreed, was dismissed yesterday on motion of District Attorney Julian, who says this must not be construed to mean that no further effort will be made to enforce the law.

The Austin Advocate says: "News comes in from several sheep camps that the loss of lambs during the recent cold weather has been very great; in some instances reaching 75 per cent. This is another calamity to our sheep men and will make a large difference to their profits for years to come. It really seems that hardships never cease."

V. &amp; T. ANNUAL MEETING.

At the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Virginia & Truckee Railroad Company held at the office of the company in Virginia City last Tuesday, the Enterprise says, the following Board of Directors were elected to serve for the ensuing term:

D. O. Mills, F. G. Newland, H. M. Yerington, D. L. Bliss, J. W. Eckley, W. E. F. Deal, W. E. Sharon, J. E. Written and Geo. T. Mills.

The following officers were then elected by the Board of Directors to serve for the ensuing year: D. O. Mills, President; H. M. Yerington, Vice President; H. M. Yerington, General Superintendent; E. B. Yerington, Secretary; Bank of California, Treasurer; D. A. Bender, General Freight and Passenger Agent.

The following appointments were then made: W. E. Deal, Attorney; Geo. T. Mills, Auditor and Paymaster; A. M. Ardery, Superintendent Telegraph and Master of Transportation; Hume Yerington, Supply Agent; I. N. Fording, Master Mechanic; W. H. Kirk, Chief Engineer and Superintendent of Track; Chas. Bralton, Master Car Builder.

Reno's Prize, The Elite Minstrels. In the history of amateur theatricals in Reno the present organization, known as the Elite Minstrels, has undoubtedly proven one of the greatest of successes from an artistic standpoint of any amateur performance ever given in Reno.

After a tour of our sister cities, Virginia and Carson, the boys by special request gave a second performance in Reno last night which occasioned forth a large audience who expressed their admiration for the excellent numbers on the program by enthusiastic applause and well deserved encores.

The reception accorded to the boys and the many warm sentiments showered on them by Carson and Virginia, ought to be a source of much gratification to the citizens of Reno who have a local pride in the efforts made by home talent.

To criticize them from the standpoint of amateurs would be to give them unjust commendation and to judge them from a professional standpoint would detract nothing from the praise they richly deserve. It certainly goes without saying that an amateur performance that can draw two full houses in Reno and do so at Carson and Virginia at $1 a seat possess unusual merit.

The curtain rose last evening on the 48 members of the company artistically grouped in the most approved minstrel fashion. Few companies of professional reputation ever presented a finer appearance.

The company possesses a number of very fine voices, among whom Frank Young, with sweet childish voice, always evokes most enthusiastic applause.

The Free Coinage topical song caught the popular sentiment and awakened a hearty response in every Nevada's heart.

The specialties are all well rendered. Dow's facial expressions are a phenological study. The University boys in their drill, by the exactness and precision of their movements deserve special notice.

The suppleness of the contortionists, the nimbleness of the acrobats, the classical groupings of the living statuary are the equal of anything seen in highly advertised professional organizations.

The boys themselves, and the people of Reno, may well feel pleased at the financial and artistic success they have made.

The World Enriched. The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system; gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

The Cattle Market. Yesterday E. May shipped to East Portland, Oregon, eighteen cars of cattle, which were consigned to the American Dressed Beef Company. One carload was also shipped by George Humphreys to Towles and consigned to Mitchell & Co. Shipments are being made daily to San Francisco and other places from Reno.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

CARROLL JOHNSON.

An Irish Star Without a Peer, and a Play Without an Equal.

Here is what Charles A. Dana's great New York newspaper, The Sun, says of that charming Irish singing comedian, Carroll Johnson, in his great play, "The Gossoon," that is to be produced here to-morrow night. The notice speaks for itself:

"The play and the star were warmly welcomed. Plaudits were profuse and noisy at every fall of the curtain; laughter was frequent for all the comic scenes, and there were flattering encores for the songs of the star. Mr. Johnson, indeed, had the audience with him all the time. He has a bright face, roguish eyes, an engaging smile and a fascinating set of teeth. So he possesses the personal equipment of the Irish star actor; but, better than that, he has a manly presence, a good singing voice and a frolicsome manner of acting that are not always attributes of players of his kind. His dialect, too, is careful and at times suggests the rich brogue of the late Dion Boucicault, who, it is still recalled, was an authority on north and south or Ireland dialects.

Mass Meeting at Wadsworth. The undersigned citizens of Wadsworth hereby issue this call for a mass meeting to be held at K. of P. hall on Friday evening, May 20, for the purpose of organizing a Silver League. Every citizen who has the welfare of his State at heart, every man who cares more for his principles than for his past party affiliations, every man who believes in the free and unlimited coinage of silver, is respectfully invited to be present and assist in forwarding this movement which is of such vital interest to our State.

WADSWORTH, May 12, 1892. (d)

RATHER EMPHATIC.

A goldbug organ—there are two or three of them in Nevada—having claimed the Appeal as doubtful, that paper says: "The Appeal has endeavored to make itself self clearly understood on the question of a silver party. We believe this State needs a general political upheaval to pull it out of the rut it has been crowded into by thieves and jobbers masquerading as party leaders. You can't bring the new party on any too soon. The silver party already has on its rolls nearly fifty per cent of the voters of this State, and at the polls this Fall we believe the force and directness of the silver party will be fully demonstrated."

All Aboard.

If you don't get a board, then help get a slab. Every one who fails to attend the ship social to-night will miss a nautical treat. The object of the social is most commendable, as the proceeds will be devoted to the fund for the proposed W. C. T. U. building. Aside from the social pleasures there will be an excellent musical programme.

A First-Class Entertainment.

"Ben Hur," by Geo. McNutt, the noted lecturer with magnificent views of Palestine and Syria, will be given at the Opera House, Wednesday evening, May 18th, for the benefit of new Congregational Church. Reserved seats only 50 cents. All others 25 cents. Box sheet at Finninger's drug store.

The Blues!

Away with them! Take Simmons Regulator for that torpid liver which has put your digestive powers out of gear. That's at the bottom of the blues, and when you take Simmons Liver Regulator you strike at the root of the evil, and everything else that is wrong goes with it. No more indigestion and constipation.

A Unique Entertainment.

Each member of the Woman's Guild of Trinity Church has undertaken to earn at least one dollar before the next meeting of the Guild. Come to that meeting on Saturday, May 14, at 8 p. m., in the Gymnasium of the School for Girls and hear her tell how she earned it. Songs by Mrs. Layton, Mrs. Porter and others. Refreshments 25 cents.

An Associated Press dispatch from Virginia City says: "Charles Fair, son of ex-United States Senator James G. Fair, has been offered the nomination as Democratic candidate to represent Nevada in the lower house of Congress. Should young Fair accept, F. G. Newlands, the Republican candidate for that position, will probably withdraw, but in the event of his staying in the field a lively campaign is anticipated."

Hearts Everywhere.

Is it because it is leap year that hearts are in evidence everywhere? New toilet cushions are in this design, tiny silver hearts powder Suede opera glass bags and card cases and some beautiful rose vases in silver are in the form of a heart, with the point resting on a standard. Toilet boxes and trays in china and silver, and a costly silver belt is a zone of linked silver hearts!—New York Times.

Attention Knights.

Members of Amity Lodge, No. 8, K. of P., are requested to attend the regular meeting Friday evening, May 13, for work in the Second Rank. Sojourning Knights are cordially invited to attend.

By order of the G. C.

S. J. HODGKINSON, K. of R. & S.

Beautiful Hands!

Are what every lady is anxious to possess. Now, there is a secret that has never been revealed to the world, and that is, the sure way to possess these hands of beauty. Use MOLLINE. A proved success. This discovery was made by a graduate of London England college and a learned chemist. The horrors of the kitchen is no more a worry to the housewife. No matter how stained and grimy the hands may be, one application of the wonderful MOLLINE will leave them as soft and white as if no kitchen work had been done. For sale by all druggists in large bottles, 50 cents.

Give MOLLINE one trial and you will never be without it.

For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

AN ODD KIND OF CLUB.

IT RESEMBLES A FULL FLEDGED TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

An Amateur Organization, the Members of Which Have Their Houses Connected by Wires, So That They May Communicate with Each Other by Telegraph.

One of the most novel or unique organizations in Brooklyn is one that has recently gained a new lease of life through the infusion of new and vigorous blood and by a thorough reorganization. It is called the Phenix Morse Telegraph club, and is perhaps the only one of its kind in the United States. The old organization was formed in 1879 and started in life under the name of the Phenix club. It was inaugurated by a number of young people, some of whom were engaged in occupation as telegraphers, and others of different vocations, who took pleasure in studying the mysterious language of dots and dashes. A private telegraph line was established and connected with the residences of the members. A busy wire it was too. The hum of conversation, if it can be termed such, was constant throughout the evening. Stories were passed over the electrical current, jests and jokes bantered, chess and checkers played by individuals who liked this sort of recreation, and in fact as good a time was usually passed as if the members were brought in contact with each other by person in one room.

Jokes of an innocent character were also carried on over the circuit, which had the advantage in so far as to allow the perpetrator to remain unknown or making it unnecessary to flee from the wrath of the person upon whom it was inflicted. Quite a number of these are stock property among the old members, who relate them to friends with as much gusto and enjoyment as if they had occurred only yesterday. One of these is to the effect that two members after practicing with another in the early evening, during which the sender transmitted the Morse characters as fast as he could, or as telegraphers would say "rushed" the receiver, notwithstanding the protests of this unfortunate disciple of America's noted inventor. The latter promised himself that a speedy revenge would follow, and sought to find some means whereby he could make the "rusher" as uncomfortable as he had been previously.

The practicing finally came to an end, and the receiver waited until an unearthly hour of the morning, when he supposed his victim had gone to bed and when the click of a sounder would strike the gloom and quiet with the distinctness of a blow from a trip hammer. At about 3 o'clock in the morning he went to the instrument and began to call his victim in a manner which would indicate that a fire had perhaps broken out or that the transmitter had serious need of aid in some dire calamity. He called in this furious style until he had awakened the sleeper, who jumped up out of bed and went to the instrument, expecting to hear that something dreadful had happened. He answered the call quakingly. His indignation can be imagined when the query came slowly and distinctly: "Will you please tell me the time; my clock has run down."

His answer is not recorded, but it is safe to assume that the immediate vicinity became as warm as a hot box of an overheated wheel. The organization went on in the even tenor of its way until two or three years ago, when it began to languish, partly on account of a defection of members who moved away from the city or because the remaining persons would not shoulder in the proper or necessary manner the worry and expense of conducting such and organization. Then came another club which was purely social in its character and which was also called the Phenix club. It may have been that the similarity of names caused a bond of friendship to be established or that some of the members of this body were capable of handling a key and working the electrical current. However this may be, the two organizations were amalgamated and a new order of affairs brought about thereby. The name was changed to the present one, and under which it started out with bright and prosperous auspices.

A flat, corner of Marcy avenue and Fulton street, has been made the headquarters of the club, and which may be termed the main office of this amateur telegraph company. Here are located the battery room, which furnishes the powerful fluid by which the wire is worked, and another, which is called the operating room, in which are placed four sets of instruments and a double practicing outfit. A galvanometer, whereby the wire is measured, so that the whereabouts of any trouble on the line can be detected, is also included in this space. Meetings and social gatherings are held in a large room running off from this one. Eighty cells of battery work the circuit, which covers a distance of nearly eighteen miles in this city, mainly in the upper residential section.

The old "string" was overhauled by an experienced lineman recently and put in sufficiently substantial shape in order to enable it to more readily resist the wear and tear of a line in a large and busy city. The circuit is placed along the housetops on the route, and trouble of any kind or, as an operator would say, "bugs" are rarely met with or experienced. Twenty-three so called "offices" are on the circuit, all of which have their calls in the same manner as do the stations of a telegraph company.

Among the present members of the club are practical telegraphers of skill and records for sending and receiving. Considerable rivalry exists between them, and it is proposed at some future time to have a tournament for fast transmitting and also for skill and ability in receiving the Morse characters. Classes will be established in order to give every one a chance. One of the fastest senders in the country is the secretary of the organization, Mr. Frank L. Catlin. Brooklyn Eagle.

This will positively be the last trip on which the office will have an opportunity to consult this noted specialist

FREE OF CHARGE.

Consultations and examinations on future visits will not be free.

The numerous cures effected by Dr. Williams in all parts of the country, and particularly in Reno and vicinity, have made his name almost a household word.

This illustrious physician can name your disease without asking a question. Go and consult him today. It will cost you nothing and may save you years of suffering and perhaps your life. You will see Dr. Williams personally, and nonsubstitute.

$1,000 IN GOLD

Given for any case taken that he cannot cure, and another $1,000 for any case ever heard of that he undertook and failed to cure.

Dr. Geo. W. Williams desires to inform the public that he is no longer connected with any dispensary, and those placing themselves under his professional care will have the benefit of his personal and skillful treatment.

All persons who regret their former folly, and suffer in mind and body from their effects, should consult at once, before it is too late, this veteran practitioner, who has no equal in the United States, and who can and will restore you to perfect health when all others have failed.

BROKEN DOWN CONSTITUTIONS

Are rejuvenated and manly vigor restored by his new and wonderful methods of treatment. No injurious drugs used. Worn out business men, out of health, especially if you are suffering from

THE YOUNGEST TRAVELING MAN.

Two weeks ago we had commercial travelers here in capes and skirts and lace. Now there is one in knickerbockers. Fourteen-year-old Loie Walker, who is selling tobacco and representing a noted cigar company, is the youngest drummer on the road. He started out from Winston, N. C., seven weeks ago on his first trip, and has been as far as New Orleans in the west and to Tampa in the south. That Master Walker is a bright lad goes without saying. He has a pair of sparkling brown eyes and a pleasant, honest face. Loie says that he has had a good trade.

He was a New York boy until a few months ago, when his father moved to Winston. He has had good training, and did something Sunday quite original for a drummer—went to church twice. Loie talks well and is polite and modest. He will sell goods where any one else can. He has one advantage over the older men on the road—he can travel on half rate tickets.—Atlanta Constitution.

A Statue of Buddha.

One of the large marble statues of Buddha in the loan exhibition shortly to be opened in the museum of the university has an interesting history. It was obtained in the time of some uprising. It is said the Indian mutiny, and bears the marks of bullets, which have broken the hand and part of the arm. After being exhibited in Memorial hall it was sold at auction with the remainder of Dr. Hufnagle's collection in Philadelphia. It now finds a permanent abiding place, where it was identified by the bullet marks as the historical statue.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Pineapples in America.

Over 12,000,000 pineapples were landed at New York last year. The price ranged from four to sixteen cents each. In England, where they are scarce, and obtained almost wholly from hothouses, the price is often from two to five dollars each. In the New York tenement districts they are retailed at one cent a slice.—New York Ledger.

Sworn That She Was Over a Hundred.

Mrs. Louis Martin, a full blooded Chippewa Indian, who died at her home in Allouez, Brown county, Wis., recently made a sworn statement to a priest before her death that she was 108 years old. She gave corroborative evidence. She was born in a wigwam near Green Bay.
